MANNING AND BLEASE TO RUN OVER

At four o'clock Wednesday morning a telephone message from Columbia gave the result of the primary at that time as follows in the race for governor:

Cole L. Blease	49,625
Richard I. Manning	33,332
Robert A. Cooper	25,051
J. M. DesChamps	142
John T. Duncan	126

The above tabe accounts for 108,276 votes. It is estimated that the entire vote in the State will not run more than 140,000. It is now certain that Governor Manning will run a second race with Cole L. Blease. Cooper appears to have been eliminated in the first primary.

Andrew J. Bethea has been re-elected lieutenant governor, easily defeating Dr. E. C. L. Adams. W. Banks Dove was elected secretary of State by a large majority over G. W. Wightman. S. T. Carter will succeed himself as State treasurer. James Cansler and A. S. Fant will go into the second primary for railroad commissioner, Cansler leading.

Congressmen Whaley and Burns have been elected to congress from their respective districts. Dominick and Aiken apparently will have to make a second race. Ragsdale appears to be elected. The race between Finley and Stevenson was in doubt according to the last information obtainable.

UNOFFICIAL RESULTS FOR COUNTY OFFICES

Senator Black, Representatives Carter and Crum, and Sheriff Ray Re-elected. Brabham and Bellinger, and Kirkland and Free Probably to Run Over.

The primary election Tuesday resulted in the nomination of Senator Black for reelection, and the nomination of Messrs. Carter and Crum for reelection as representatives.

The race for clerk of court is uncomfortably close, and the official count will doubtless be required to determine who is in the running for the second primary. Kirkland leads, according to the unofficial returns, with 272 votes. Free comes next with 268, followed in close order by Copeland with 264, and Brooker with 258.

Sheriff Ray is elected on the first ballot to succeed himself as sheriff of the county.

Carter and Crum were reelected. Second races will have to be made for the following officers:

Clerk of court—Kirkland and Free, as indicated by the returns last night.

Probate judge—Brabham and Bellinger.

Auditor and Supt. education—Rowell and Price.

County commissioner—Copeland and Hiers.

Governor Carries the County

Bamberg county rallied nobly to the support of Governor Richard I. Manning in the primary election Tuesday. In approximate numbers the governor received a vote for each vote received by all other candidates for governor combined. With two boxes missing, the vote stood:

Bleas 369
Cooper 243
DesChamps 7
Duncan 2
Manning 633

BYRNES REELECTED BY HANDSOME VOTE

Congressman James F. Byrnes is reelected to congress by an overwhelming vote. The vote in Bamberg stood as follows: Byrnes 1,052, Etheredge 156.

Telephonic communication with Aiken last night brought the information that the vote was heavily in favor of the congressman in every county in the district, including Saluda, the home of Mr. Etheredge. A four or five to one vote was indicated in Byrnes's favor all over the district.

MAGISTRATE.

Dickinson, Kinard and Lain Elected. Cox and Hightower Run Over.

The race for magistrate in the four divisions of the county resulted in the nomination of J. H. Kinard as magistrate at Ehrhardt; Edgar Dickinson as magistrate in Bamberg; O. J. C. Lain as magistrate at Olar. Cox and Hightower run over for magistrate at Denmark. The following is the vote:

THE COTTON WEAVERS.

Cain and Staley, Bishop and McMillan, Fail and Templeton Run Over.

In the race for cotton weaver at the four points in the county, no candidate seems to have been nominated on the first ballot. Cain and Staley run over at Denmark, Bishop and McMillan run over at Ehrhardt, and Fail and Templeton run over at Olar. One box was missing from the Bamberg cotton weaver's district, and the result is uncertain. Farrell's had not been received at a late hour last night.

The Farrell's box is not included in the tabulation for Bamberg cotton weaver. For some reason the party giving in the returns failed to state the vote for this office.

BUSINESS AND PATRIOTISM.

The Combination Demonstrated by Recent Mobilization.

"Big Business" has demonstrated its patriotism by facilitating the mobilization of the National Guard, writes Thomas F. Logan, in Leslie's. Not only have the big business establishments assured their employees that absence with the National Guard will not interfere with their reemployment after the term of their service is ended, but full pay is being allowed National Guardsmen in nearly every instance. The war department has found that the railroads are prepared to give their best services in transporting the National Guard troops. At the Depew shops of the New York Central lines at Depew, N. Y., the war department was recently informed that there was an impressive flag day celebration by all the employees. There was a bugle salute to the flag, a gun salute and other ceremonies in which all the employees took part. Such evidences are being noted in all the big industrial organizations of the country. The first sign of national danger has brought the promise of undiluted Americanism to realization.
